3/ Subd There is no regulation or rule at present for the prohibition of the employment of persons suffering from ^{contagious} ~~contagious~~ diseases in eating houses or hotels. But so far as municipalities are concerned, it may be possible to prohibit the employment of such persons by laying down such a condition while granting licenses under section 48 (c) (1) of the Municipal Regulation. This case will therefore be transferred to the S & G Branch, if approved.

188 KP (4) The request is based on 15/5/30 the assumption that 75% of the employees are suffering from contagious diseases. There is nothing to show that the assumption is well founded.

5/ Please see Dr. Waterhouse's report and note the substance of the information collected by him upon this point.

6/ I believe the by-laws of some municipal councils provide for some control over persons employed in hotels, bakeries etc., although in fact the control exists only on paper. Please ~~prepare~~ the by-laws of Hygiene and draft by-laws of Bangalore on this point.

71/ Subd Dr. Natarajan states that food handlers seem to be dangerous factors in the production of diseases and that the inner ~~sanitation~~ hygienic conditions of the restaurant must be raised. He states that if a man could be found allowing food handlers to employ only men who as possess a certificate to show that they have been examined and have been found free from carrying infection, it would be ~~desirable to control the spread of disease~~ on the byelaws of the city of Bangalore under section 4 & (i) (ii) (iii) & (iv) of the Municipal Regulation, the following provision is made:-

"No person suffering from a contagious ~~disease~~ or infectious or a loathsome disease or who has recently been in attendance on any persons suffering from such disease or who is unwashed or otherwise unclean shall be employed in an eating house"

Mysore City Municipality provides against the employment of any person suffering from any contagious disease by any vision is proposed in the draft bye

13) The representation under ref requires that only such people as produce a medical certificate of good health help to serve the purpose intended is open to question. A model byelaw on

Dr Natarajan confined himself only to typhoid carriers in his Survey and other contagious diseases are left out of account

27) Some restriction is necessary to exclude the people suffering from contagious diseases from handling food stuffs in Hotels, restaurants, Tea and Coffee Houses, if the general public have to be protected from the diseases. The Bye-laws of the City Municipality, Mysore do not contain necessary provision requiring the attendants in Hotels &c, to produce Medical Certificate to show that they are free from communicable diseases. This deficiency in the Bye-laws may be remedied

28) This particular restriction has to be provisional until the general public are sufficiently educated in Public Health matters when it will be possible to bring the laws more and more into practical application
